

NEW CHEMISTS GROUP FORMED

Student Affiliate Of American Chem. Society Organized

Under the direction of Father T. Joseph Brown, S.J., chairman of the Department of Chemistry, a new group of student chemists has been organized. The Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society, as the group is called, will be afforded all the privileges of the regular members of the American Chemical Society. Foremost among these privileges are the publication "News Edition" and attendance at the monthly meetings of the Western New York Section of the American Chemical Society, as well as attendance at the national meetings of the society.

Dr. Liberatore, before his departure for Columbia University, and Father Brown, were instrumental in the formation of the group.

Following is a list of the present Students affiliated: Samuel Albert, Leonard Amborski, Walter Brauer, James Caher, Stephen Chmielowski, Paul Corcoran, Edward Golibersuch, Rudolph Grandits, Louis J. Gugliuzza, William Kenline, William Kirchgessner, Walter Kosiba, Edgar Langenstein, Eugene Lorence, Jerome Mruk, Raymond Osgood, Francis Sayles, Michael Syracuse, John Szymanski, Kenneth Walters and Walter Ziembra.