

Business and pre-law Class who has the highest standing in English, Apologetics and Economics, is awarded to Harry A. Dunlop.

The Premium is awarded to Joseph R. Stillwell.

Honorable mention: John C. Hausle, Robert J. Hogan, Donald F. Meyers, Donald J. Morey.

The Father Wassman Medal, awarded to the student in the Freshman Pre-medical Class who has the highest standing in Biology and English, is awarded to Paul A. Alfano.

The Premium is awarded to Thaddeus J. Bugelski.

Honorable mention: Carl J. Graf, Gerald N. Kuhn, Thomas A. Lombardo.

The Canisius Alumni Sodality Medal, awarded to the student in the Sophomore Arts Class who has the highest standing in Sophomore Greek, is awarded to John J. Neylon.

The Bishop Colton Medal, awarded to the student in the Freshman Arts Class who has the highest average in Freshman Greek, is awarded to John C. Mattina.

The Bishop Turner Medal, awarded to the student in the Freshman Arts Class who has the highest average in Elementary Greek, is awarded to Mortimer J. Donovan.

The August Hart Bindeman Memorial Medal, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. August Bindeman, in memory of their son, August Hart Bindeman of the Class of '22, awarded for excellence in Oratory, is won by William J. Flynn, Jr.

Special Premiums awarded annually to the students who have the highest standing in specified subjects, are awarded as follows:

In the Sophomore Class: General Chemistry, John J. Neylon; History, John W. Brady; Calculus, James H. Munger; Accounting, Harold J. Heckman.

In the Freshman Class: Accounting, Paul Munich; Advanced French, Harry A. Dunlap; Advanced Spanish, Bernard C. Curran; Advanced standing in Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, English and Apologetics, is not awarded.

STUDENT AWARDS

(Continued from page one)

The Premium is awarded to Edward J. Lang.

Honorable mention: Francis X. Ball.

The Charles G. Duffy Medal, awarded to the student in the Sophomore Business and Pre-law Class who has the highest standing in Natural Science, English and Economics, is awarded to John W. Brady.

The Premium is awarded to Norbert M. Phillipps and Harold J. Heckman (Ex Aequo).

Honorable mention: Clayton J. Barth, William E. Shaddock.

The Pasteur Medal, awarded to the student in the Sophomore Pre-medical Class, who has the highest standing in Biology and English, is awarded to Ernest G. Zavisca.

The Premium is awarded to Norbert J. Roberts.

Honorable mention: Kenneth L. Brown, Eugene M. Germain.

The Buffalo Catholic Library Medal, awarded to the student in the Freshman Arts Class who has the highest standing in Latin, English, Apologetics and Greek or Mathematics, is awarded to John C. Mattina.

The Premium is awarded to Paul G. Duffner.

Honorable mention: Thomas F. Brady, Thomas W. Cosgrove, Thomas E. Fleming, James E. Kenney, James J. McKenzie, Robert J. Manhardt, Vincent M. Martin, Martin B. O'Donnell, Edward B. Schoell, Charles A. Suchan, William P. Tiede.

A Special Medal awarded to Mortimer J. Donovan.

The Oliver Cabana, Jr., Medal, awarded to the student in the Freshman Science Class, who has the highest standing in Physics, Chemistry, English and Apologetics, is awarded to Norbert H. Kirchgessner.

The Premium is awarded to John J. Lander and Albert D. Marx (Ex Aequo).

The Edwin Miller Medal, awarded to the student in the Freshman