

New Profs Join Staff

The Very Reverend Philip E. Dobson S. J. has announced the appointment of thirteen new lay members to the faculty and staff of Canisius College.

Mr. James L. McCarthy, from the staff of the University of Connecticut and a former Army lieutenant, is the new assistant professor of economics. Mr. Richard L. Uschold, who graduated cum laude from Canisius College in 1953, has joined the faculty as an instructor in mathematics.

A Princeton University research chemist, Mr. Robert T. Conley, has joined the staff as an assistant professor of chemistry. Dr. Jack H. Curtis, a specialist in marriage and family problems, has been named assistant professor of sociology. A Connecticut man who recently received his doctorate from Yale University, Dr. Charles A. McCann is now an instructor in English here.

Having been Chairman of the Department of Education at St. Peter's College since 1949, Dr. John S. Broadhurst of Union, New Jersey has been appointed Director of the Canisius College Graduate Division and Chairman of the Department of Education. Mr. Joseph P. Lovering, a naval veteran of two year's service in the Philippines and China, has assumed the office of assistant professor of English.

Dr. William R. Kenny has come from the University of California as an instructor in the Department of History. The holder of a Doctor of Philosophy degree from Laval University, Quebec, Dr. George J. Lavere has received the post of instructor of philosophy. A new assistant professor of business is Mr. Salvatore G. Gilardi, a native of Providence, Rhode Island.

Two classmates, Mr. Daniel F. Dempsey of Buffalo, and Mr. David G. Kieffer Jr. of New Orleans, who will receive their doctorates from the University of Notre Dame this year, have been appointed assistant professors of physics. Mr. Charles E. Strain of Cedar Grove, N. J., possessing a broad personal knowledge of the field of management, is now an assistant professor of management.

A noted Polish author and radio commentator has joined the faculty as a special lecturer in Polish history and literature. Mr. Bohdan Pawlowicz speaks eight languages and can read five others. He is the author of 18 books and 5,000 shorter works.