

HONORS AWARDED

(Continued from page three)

man Premedical Class, who has the highest standing in Biological Science and English, is awarded to Max Burstein. The Premium is awarded to Eugene M. Germain. Honorable mention, Ernest G. Zavisca, Kenneth L. Brown, Louis Rosenfield, Leonard J. Pasciak, Norbert J. Roberts, Daniel M. Wolf.

The Canisius Alumni Sodality Medal, awarded to the student in the Sophomore Arts Class, who has the highest average in Sophomore Greek, is awarded to Harold S. Hacker.

The Bishop Colton Medal, awarded to the student in the Freshman Arts Class, who has the highest average in Freshman Greek, is awarded to John J. Neylon.

The Bishop Turner Medal, awarded to the student in the Freshman Arts Class, who has the highest average in Elementary Greek, is awarded to Patrick F. Hartnett.

The August Hart Bindeman Memorial Medal, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. August Bindeman in memory of their son, August Hart Bindeman, a member of the Class of '22, awarded for excellence in Oratory, is won by John J. Neylon.

Special Premiums awarded annually to the students who have the highest standing in specified subjects, are awarded as follows:

In the Junior Class:

Applied Mechanics, Roger O'Day.

In the Sophomore Class:

General Chemistry, Harold S. Hacker.

History, Robert R. Howe.

Calculus, Bert C. Kreller.

Mechanical Drawing, Robert V. Brinkworth.

In the Freshman Class:

Mechanical Drawing, William J. Wahl.

Advanced French, Harold J. Heckman.

Advanced Spanish, John T. Allen.

Advanced German, Robert J. McGoogan.

Mathematics, James H. Munger.

SPECIAL AWARDS

Purse of twenty dollars was awarded to Arthur T. Phelps for his essay in literature.

Special premiums were awarded to the members of the winning team in the Annual Prize Debate of the Freshman Debating Society—won by Henry B. Roberts and John J. Neylon.

A Gold Medal was awarded to the student chosen as the best actor in the One-Act Play Contest—Matthew W. Burke, '38.