

Former Prof To Be Priest

Jesuit's Ordination At Woodstock In June

Father George J. Hilsdorf, S.J., who taught chemistry at Canisius College while studying for his Master of Science degree, will be ordained to the sacred priesthood at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Md., on Sunday, June 23.

With twenty-five other Jesuit seminarians, he will be ordained by His Excellency the Most Reverend Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, D.D., the Apostolic Delegate of the Holy See to the U. S.

After graduation from St. Peter's High School and St. Peter's College in Jersey City, Father Hilsdorf entered the Society of Jesus at St. Andrew-on-Hudson at Poughkeepsie.

Father Hilsdorf joined the Canisius College faculty in 1940 and was here for three years until he received his M.S. Upon leaving Canisius, he returned to Woodstock to begin the study of sacred theology.

He will sing his First Solemn High Mass on Sunday, June 30, at 11 o'clock in St. Michael's Church in his home-town, Union City, N. J.
